

SHORT BIO – JUDGE SANJI MONAGENG – 11th November 2016

Judge Monageng is a national of the Republic of Botswana. She has been a Judge in the Appeals Division of the International Criminal Court, in The Hague, the Netherlands, since 2009. She is also the Court's former 1st Vice President. She is a former Judge of the High Courts of The Republic of the Gambia in West Africa, and in the Kingdom of Swaziland in Southern Africa.

She served as the founder Chief Executive Officer of the Law Society of Botswana and also as a Commissioner and Chairperson of the African Commission of Human and Peoples' Rights, an organ of the African Union, and the premier body which is mandated, among other things, to protect and promote human and peoples' rights in Africa.

Judge Monageng is a Board member in a number of international organizations.